

AE 2100A Borescope Inspection

Course syllabus

Training level ATA 104 Level IV

Target population Recommended for personnel performing, supervising or supporting borescope inspection activities.

General description On completion of the course each student will be able to; identify the borescope access ports, use all the necessary equipment to perform borescope inspections and locate and use the serviceable limits tables in the maintenance manual.

Notes The AE 2100A Line Maintenance course is a course-entry pre-requisite. Students must be familiar with the AE 2100A engine and have gas turbine borescope inspection experience. Training media consists of four hours of lecture and twelve hours of laboratory.

Course schedule

Location Indianapolis training centre

Dates On request

Students per course 6-9

Training methods Tutor led instruction in training room

Allocation of hours

Monday to Friday 08:00 to 16:00

For further information

trainingcorpreg@rolls-royce.com