

ROLLS-ROYCE DONATION TO SICHUAN EMPLOYEES

11 Sept., 2008

Richard Margolis, Regional Director of North-East Asia, handed over a donation of RMB 78,000 to the families of four Rolls-Royce employee's on September 11th.

The fund was raised by Rolls-Royce employees in order to help these families rebuild their homes that were either destroyed or badly damaged in the earthquake in May.

The names of the recipients are Albert Jiang, Kevin Huang, Sabrina Yang and Marco Liu.

The donation is part of a larger project launched by Rolls-Royce to help Sichuan earthquake stricken areas.

Rolls- Royce and Rolls-Royce employees have made a direct donation US$200,000 to China Red Cross and will also contribute to the construction of a new school in Sichuan Province that needs about RMB 500,000.

In addition, Rolls-Royce (Shanghai) Marine Limited employees have donated 120,000RMB to the Shanghai Red Cross.
